

137 Pillars donates to Chaipattana Foundation

Bangkok, January 2019 - The management of the luxury boutique hotel 137 Pillars Suites & Residences Bangkok recently donated a part of the proceeds from its "My Beloved King Rama 9" auction to the Chaipattana Foundation.

In the photo, Dr. Sumeth Tantivejakul, Secretary-General of the Chaipattana foundation (3rd from left) accepts the donation from Niphan Wongphanlert, Managing Director of 137 Pillars Hotels & Resorts (3rd from right). Also seen are Phathaiwat Changtrakul from Farmgroup (1st from right), and Nida Wongphanlert (2nd from right), Bjorn Richardson (2nd from left) and Jakri Rujirat (1st from left) from 137 Pillars Suites & Residences.

The silent auction for award-winning artist Suwanee Sarakana's portrait of the late King Rama 9 was one of ten artworks in 137 Pillars Suites & Residences' inaugural 'Art Rotation', a series of curated exhibitions to make art by the Kingdom's top artists more accessible to guests, art collectors and the community the hotel is located in.

137
PILLARS
SUITES & RESIDENCES
— BANGKOK —

For more information and further enquiries, please contact 137 Pillars Suites & Residences Bangkok

Tel: +66 (0)2 079-7000

Email: contact@137pillarbangkok.com

website: www.137pillarbangkok.com

Media Contact:

Kanchalikar Phruttisarikorn

PR Specialist

Red pill Limited

Tel: +66 (0) 89-969-6658

E-mail: kanchalikar@redpill.co.th